

*It doesn't work without card-ID, address and the stamp. Postcrossing provides the card-ID the same instant that it gives you an address.

(OPTIONAL: Washi-Tape)

OPTIONAL: DATE, PLACE, WEATHER *
POSTCARD-ID-NUMBER *

A short message, maybe a little story about yourself, your neighborhood or some remarks on your hobbies.
 Greetings
 your Name

OPTIONAL: your Postcrossing-name

Name *
 Street + No.
 Town + Postcode
 Land

INTERNATIONAL MAIL DELIVERY *

You get a random address of another postcrossing member. And a few infos about the person who wrote the card's ID-number. Now you choose a card to send.

Stats
Map
Wall
Received
Sent Traveling
Register a postcard
Send a postcard

and register yourself for free. The whole project is funded by donations, but you don't have to donate, the only things that cost you money are the postcards and the usual post stamps.

www.postcrossing.com

3 Writing the postcard

2 Request an address

1 Register

4 Put the postcard in the postbox.

5 Postcard arrives.

6 The recipient registers your postcard

Stats
Map
Wall Received
Sent Traveling
Register a postcard
Send a postcard

Therefore, the postcard-ID-number is crucial! (let's hope, you didn't forget that one!)

7 Now you get a postcard by another random postcrossing member! Keep an eye on your mailbox ...

LUI KOHLMANN:
 "Chatroulette with postcards - but without Creeps!"

a for-free Fanzine about
POSTCROSSING

The Postcrossing logo is a registered trademark.